

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

McCullough Raiguel Funeral Homes & Crematory has been a mainstay in Ritchie County and its neighboring Counties. We're family-owned and trusted for over 100 years. With McCullough Raiguel, your family can always do business with someone you can depend on. Local ownership means we control quality and pricing in Ritchie County...not some out-of-state corporation. And we reinvest our time and resources back into the communities we serve. We are honored to be part of the rich history of Ritchie County and its neighboring Counties and we remain committed to helping its families.

Sincerely,
